

You have to use ReactJS with Redux to build this interface.

It will be a cryptocurrency interface with some features.

You will have to care about the UI, I don't want something black and white !

You will use this free API:

<https://coinmarketcap.com/api/>

Features

Display global informations

Using

<https://api.coinmarketcap.com/v2/global/>

Format to `YYYY MM DD` timestamp to have a better display

Listing

It should look like this but prettier:
